

PLAN INTERNATIONAL IRELAND CHILD

SAFEGUARDING STATEMENT

Plan International recognises that violence against children and young people is prevalent throughout the world and in all societies. We are deeply committed to eradicating violence against children and young people and take very seriously our duty to safeguard all children and young people and promote their welfare.

This also means holding ourselves to account in ensuring that no child or young person is harmed or placed at risk of harm as a result of their association with us.

Plan International Ireland is fully committed to the gender responsive safeguarding¹ of all children and young people from all forms of violence. We take very seriously our responsibility and duty to ensure that we, as an organisation, and anyone who represents us does not in any way harm, abuse or commit any other act of violence against children and young people or place them at risk of the same.

We promote child and youth safe practices, approaches, interventions and environments which respects, recognises and responds to the specific safeguarding needs and addresses the protection risks of the differing gender and other identities. We will challenge and do not tolerate inequality, discrimination or exclusion.

We respond to a child or young person who may be in need of protection and or psycho-social support and intend that their welfare and best interests will at all times be paramount consideration.

We ensure all who work with and engage with us understand and are supported in their meeting safeguarding roles and responsibilities. We take positive action to prevent anyone who might be a risk to children and young people from becoming involved with us and take stringent measures against any Staff, Associate or Visitor who perpetrates an act of violence against a child.

We promote the active involvement of children and young people in their own protection.

Plan International Ireland operates within the National Children's First National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children. We believe in promoting the general welfare, health, development and safety of children and youth.

PLAN'S GLOBAL POLICY ON SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE AIMS TO ENSURE THAT:

All who work for and engage with us are skilled, confident, understand, and are well supported in meeting their responsibilities to safeguard children and young people from violence and engage positively with them in ways that enhance the achievement of our purpose.

We have procedures in place to prevent and deal with the actions/behaviour of our staff, associates, visitors or us as an organisation that result in violence against a child or young person and/or places them at risk of the same.

Children and young people we work with are aware of our responsibilities to prevent and respond to any harm against them arising from actions and behaviours of our staff, associates and visitors, and the routes for reporting such incidents.

¹ Gender Responsive Safeguarding" is a safeguarding approach that: takes full account of gender in considering the specific safeguarding needs of girls, boys and other gender identities; integrates safeguarding measures that address protection risks for children and young people (girls, boys, young women, young men, and children of other gender identities) that stem from issues relating to gender bias and discrimination; and supports the empowerment and fosters the inclusion of girls, particularly in the safeguarding process, in a manner that promotes equality, equity and ultimately their increased safety and protection

SERVICES BEING PROVIDED:

Plan International Ireland's Development Education Programme works to tackle the root causes of injustice and inequality, globally and locally.

IN IRELAND

Our Irish based programme aims to inspire, motivate and promote collaboration. We use participatory methodologies to challenge learner's values, increase their knowledge of global issues and develop their skills of team work, public speaking and advocacy:

- We deliver talks and workshops directly to students.
Plan International Ireland facilitate talks and workshops for schools, communities and youth groups. Our workshops use interactive methodologies, challenge participants perceptions and provide tangible examples from our work experience overseas.
- We have an active Youth Advisory Panel (YAP) working on global justice issues.
The aim of the YAP is to engage young people as ambassadors and advisors to Plan International Ireland. Through Development Education processes, the YAP becomes empowered to represent Plan International Ireland.
- We create up-to-date Development Education resources
In Plan International Ireland, we want to help make Development Education a part of daily lessons. We have created a user friendly Teachers Handbook and Interactive Student Resources which are fun and all linked to all aspects of the Primary and Post Primary Education curriculum.

GLOBALLY

Plan International strives for lasting and large-scale impact to ensure that children, including our sponsored children, LEARN, LEAD, DECIDE and THRIVE through programming and influencing activity².

Plan International run programmes around the world designed to make a lasting difference in children's lives by addressing the problem of violence against children. These programme activities are linked to, but distinct from our efforts to ensure that we as an organisation 'do no harm' to children.

Plan International Ireland invests time and money into designing and supporting the implementation of quality programmes across four key areas:

- Inclusive Quality Education
Vulnerable and excluded children, and particularly girls, access and complete inclusive quality education from pre-primary to secondary. Education, under the LEARN pillar of the Global Strategy is the flagship programme for Plan International Ireland, both in humanitarian and development programmes.
- Child Protection
Vulnerable and excluded children, adolescents and young people – particularly girls and young women – are protected from all forms of violence and the gender dynamics that drive it. Child protection, under the THRIVE pillar of the Global Strategy, is fundamental to the work that Plan International Ireland does in all areas as the absence of protection inhibits the enjoyment of other rights and is a violation in itself. Protection issues such as Female Genital Mutilation and early marriage are defined by the DECIDE pillar of the global strategy while at the same time being fundamental to Plan International Ireland's child protection work.
- Participation
Vulnerable and excluded children and young people, and particularly girls and young women are active citizens. Under the LEAD pillar of the Global Strategy, Plan International Ireland seeks to advance child participations, so that vulnerable and excluded children have the power to take action on issues that matter to them.
- Global Emergency Response

² Plan International 100 Million Reasons Global Strategy 2017-2022 (Nov 2016)

Plan International Ireland will be a key support to Plan International's efforts to ensure that during and after conflicts and disasters, the education of girls and boys is not disrupted. We work to strengthen Education in Emergencies (EiE) in existing Plan International countries and as a key response in conflict-affected countries where we are beginning to work. In times of disaster, children are particularly vulnerable. Separation from family and friends causes uncertainty, anxiety and shock, with a significant impact on children's emotional well-being. Our disaster response work focuses on children's urgent needs, such as food and water. We then prioritize child protection and education, to help re-establish a sense of security and normality.

NATURE OF SERVICE AND PRINCIPLES TO SAFEGUARD CHILDREN FROM HARM

Plan International recognises the rights of all children within our care to be protected from harm in accordance with the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child. Unfortunately all children are potentially at risk from abuse and exploitation by adults. Everyone has a responsibility and a role in protecting children and it is essential that we follow all practical and reasonable steps to counteract any risk to the children within our care.

Plan International has a clear and unequivocal safeguarding policy, Say Yes! to Keeping Children and Young People Safe and Protected, of which Plan International Ireland is bound. It aims to make sure no child or young person who is associated with Plan International comes to any harm. The policy governs the behaviours of Plan International staff, associates and visitors, ensuring we minimise risks to children and young people and report any concerns about a child or young person's welfare appropriately.

GIRLS

Due to our Purpose, Plan International's Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy, has a particular focus on girls and young women aged up to and including 24 years. Girls may be especially vulnerable and at risk from certain forms of violence, including sexual and gender-based violence¹. Violence against girls is not only against the values and principles we uphold as described in this Global Policy, but also in direct opposition to the aims of our work. As such, we are particularly concerned with ensuring that girls do not experience harm, abuse, exploitation, or any other form of violence as a result of their engagement with us or our programmes, projects, events, and processes. Furthermore, we need to ensure that our safeguarding approach and response to safeguarding concerns are gender responsive.

YOUNG PEOPLE

We work with Young People, and therefore the protective scope of Plan International's Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy extends to young people we are supporting or are in contact with, through our youth engagement work. We recognise that young people have particular safeguarding needs requiring distinct consideration. For example, some young people engaging with and attending events supported by Plan International Ireland may be over the formal age of majority and so face fewer legal restrictions in what is permissible, but still require protection from violence and we retain a duty of care towards them.

RISK ASSESSMENT

Plan International Ireland has carried out an assessment of any potential for harm to a child while availing of our services. Below is a list of the areas of risk identified and the list of procedures for managing these risks.

	Risk Identified	Procedure in place to manage risk identified
1	Recruitment	Plan International Ireland's Child Protection Policy Document outlines the procedure for the safe recruitment and selection of workers and volunteers. Staff members, who will conduct programming in Ireland must obtain Garda Vetting.
2	Failure to report allegation of abuse or misconduct against workers/volunteers of a child availing of our service	Plan Ireland responds to allegations abuse or misconduct against workers/volunteers of a child availing of our service in Ireland in accordance with the Children First Act 2015 and Tusla Guidelines. Allegations of abuse or misconduct in Country Offices of operation will be responded to according to Plan International Global Reporting and Responding procedures When a report is first received (e.g. from child, parent, staff, etc.) or if a staff member or associate wishes to report a concern in writing, details must be recorded immediately or as soon as possible (within 24 hours) on Plan International's 'Incident/Loss Notification Form'. The recording should be as clear, factual and objective as possible. Plan has an internal whistleblowing protocol including a confidential hotline to allow any staff member to confidentially raise any concerns including safeguarding or protection concerns.
3	Failure to reporting Child Protection Concerns from staff/volunteers:	It is everyone's responsibility to report any potential or actual risk to a child's wellbeing and safety. Our Child Protection Policy requires all Plan International Staff, Associates and Visitors to report any child abuse and child protection concerns they may have in accordance with local procedures and the policy. An incident report form should be used to record any abuse, attempted abuse or suspected abuse of a young person and passed to the DLP. The DLP will follow up with the CEO, the local Plan office and relevant external bodies. All actions taken in relation to the individual case must be adequately documented to reflect the rights of the child and of the abuser/suspected abuser and securely stored. If the risk is identified in Ireland, the Children First Guidelines (of the Department of Children and Youth Affairs) will be followed. If the risk is identified in another country, any local guidelines will be followed under the direction of the local Plan office.
4	Plan Supporters	Plan International Ireland retain the right to turn down requests to support Plan at our discretion.

		We require supporters visiting communities, and who will have direct or indirect contact with children, to obtain Garda Vetting. We screen all communications from sponsors to sponsored children for any inappropriate, written or visual material and contact details. This is to protect both sponsor and child from unregulated and possibly inappropriate contact. We have a zero tolerance policy on unsupervised direct/indirect contact (such contact may include but is not limited to visits and any form of communication via social media, emails, letters etc.) that is intended to establish personal relationships with any child associated with Plan.
5	Improper storage or publication of photos of children	All information and images are held securely, databases are password protected and access to information is given on the basis of role. We will only use children's images or personal information in our marketing, advocacy, fundraising, communication and programme work in ways that will safeguard their dignity and protect their rights. Permission is always obtained for these images and information. Plan Ireland is a signatory of the Dóchas Code of Conduct on Images and Messages which provides a set of guiding principles on communicating programmes and values in a coherent and balanced way.
6	Data protection	The nature of our work means we hold details of children and their families. We are solely responsible for ensuring that the information is not abused and is used for the intended purpose. All information and images are held securely, in accordance with the GDPR. Databases are password protected and access to information is given on the basis of role.
7	Accidents and injuries on site	Accidents and injuries that occur on the premises shall be managed in accordance with the Accident and Injury Policy.
